Where words meet mastery.

Orator

/'ôrədər/

- a public speaker, especially one who is eloquent or skilled.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

01
PROBLEM

02
SOLUTION & DEMO

03
MARKET

04
BUSINESS PLAN

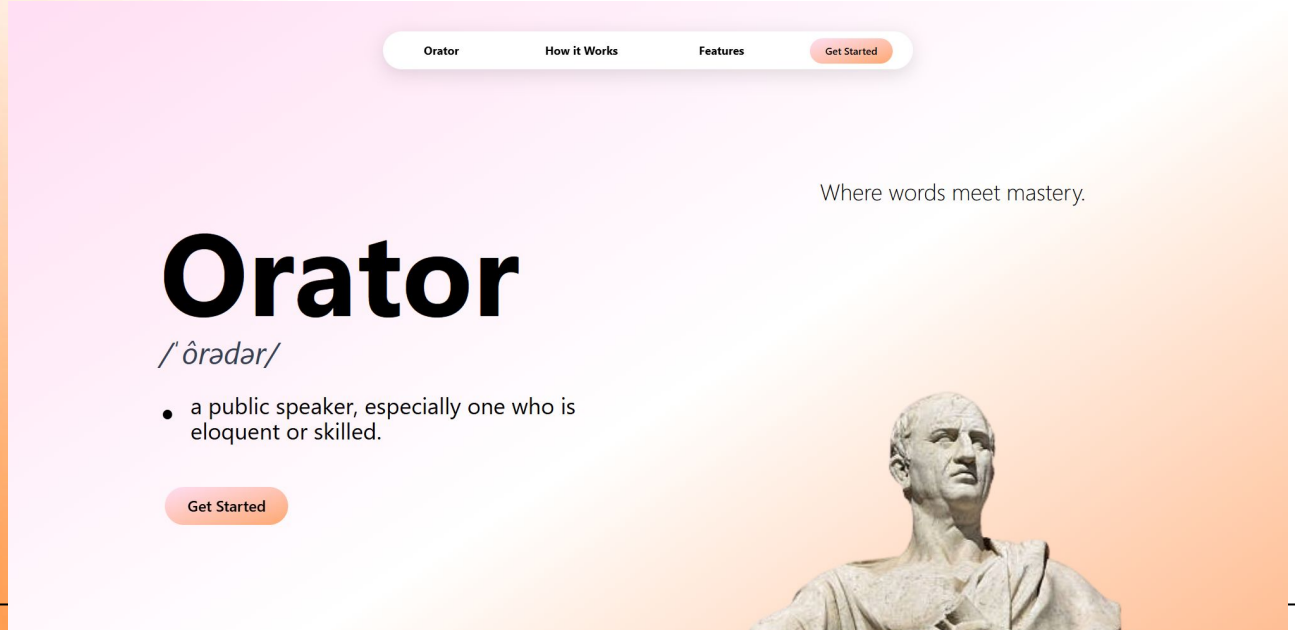
The Problem

“Great ideas get lost in poor presentations.”

Everyone deserves to sound as good as their ideas.

Our Solution & Demo

We built Orator to help people present with clarity, confidence, and control.



The Market

Solving the world's #1 fear: public speaking.

12.3 million

Canadians in roles where presentation, pitching, or communication skills are essential.

82.6 million

Students in secondary and primary education in the U.S. and Canada

118 million

U.S. citizens in roles where presentation, pitching, or communication skills are essential.

Business Plan

Freemium to premium.

1. Freemium

- Anyone can use Orator for free to record short practices and get feedback on speech and gestures.

2. Premium

- around $13 a month to cover API calls, domain, and database fees
- unlocks full-length sessions, detailed analytics, and emotion tracking using hardware.

3. Channel Sales

- Partner with any hardware reseller that specializes in commercial EEG reading devices

Become an

Orator

Thank you for listening + Q&A